

L'il Angels Consignment Sale

Inspection Guidelines - Spring 2026

RECALL DISCLOSURE

It is the responsibility of each Consignor to ensure the items sent to L'il Angels Consignment Sale have been checked for RECALLS. Recalled items occur in every category, including clothing and accessories.

L'il Angels Consignment Sale will REJECT and REMOVE any item found to be RECALLED according to the Consumer Product Safety Commission's Recall List as we inspect our sales floor prior to open sale hours.

We do not own your items for sale, we are a third party selling items on your behalf. Although we work hard to provide an environment for our buyers to purchase with confidence, it is extremely important that our Consignors are a part of this process by ensuring to the best of your ability that your items are safe for use by the next family. There is no amount of money worth putting a child's safety at risk.

Recalled items that reflect a repair is available from the manufacturer to make it safe for use MUST have the repair in place before it can be sold on our sales floor. Items with repairs available that do not have the repair in place will be REMOVED and REJECTED from the sales floor prior to open sale hours.
